

DRIVER LICENSE RENEWAL BY MAIL

Driver licenses expiring in the year 2020 may be eligible for RENEWAL by mail. If you possess a current Hawaii driver license issued on or after May 1, 2014, and all required Real-ID documents such as proof of legal presence, proof of social security number and two proof of principal address are already on file, follow this process:

- Send a letter requesting to renew your Hawaii Driver License. The following information must be included in your letter: (Note: The earliest you can submit is 6 months before the expiration date printed on the card)
 - Name (as it appears on the license)
 - Mailing address
 - Social Security Number (last four digits) or Hawaii Driver License number
 - Date of birth
 - Email address (to notify you of any discrepancy or incomplete paperwork - we do not save this information)
 - Signature (this will be compared to your signature on file)

Mail your letter to:

Driver License Section
P.O. Box 30340
Honolulu, HI 96820-0340

OR Email your signed and dated letter to: dl@honolulu.gov

or Fax to: (808) 768-9096

Once your letter, email or Fax is received, we will mail/email a renewal packet to you with the appropriate instructions. Renewal packet consists of:

- Application
- Signature Form
- Medical Form (mini physical and eye test certification)
- Statement of Driver License Possession (must be notarized)
- Complete and return all original forms by mail.

You are eligible to renew your Class 1, 2 or 3 license by mail only under the following conditions:

- Your lawful status in the United States is not temporary.
- You don't have pending compliance requirements in other jurisdictions.
- You don't have a previously reported medical condition that requires a re-evaluation.
