

Important Information

Definition of Income for the Tax Credit Program:

Section 8.13.1 of the Revised Ordinance of Honolulu 1990 "Income" means the sum of federal total income as defined in the Internal Revenue Code of the United States of 1954, as amended, and all nontaxable income, including but not limited to (1) tax-exempt interest received from the federal government or any of its instrumentalities, (2) the gross amount of any IRA distribution, pension or annuity benefits received (including Railroad Retirement Act benefits and veterans disability pensions), excluding rollovers, (3) all payments received under the federal Social Security and state unemployment insurance laws, (4) nontaxable contributions to public or private pension, annuity and/or deferred compensation plans, and (5) federal cost of living allowances. All income set forth in the tax return filed by the titleholder, whether the tax return is a joint tax return or an individual tax return, shall be considered the titleholder's income. "Income" does not include nonmonetary gifts from private sources, or surplus foods or other relief in kind provided by public or private agencies.

Information provided in the application and supporting documents must be complete and accurate. Erroneous or incomplete information may result in disqualification and prevent the applicant from receiving the real property tax credit.

Applications filed by September 30, 2022 will be used to apply real property tax credits to real property taxes due July 1, 2023 to June 30, 2024.

You must notify the Dept. of Budget and Fiscal Services, Div. of Treasury, Tax Relief Section immediately if the Eligibility Requirements listed under "Who Should File an Application", are no longer met or if the title to the property has been transferred. Failure to provide proper notification may result in the revocation of the real property tax credit and other penalties.

Applicants will be notified in writing by December 31, 2022 if their application is denied and will have the right to appeal.

Penalties (ROH) Section 8-13.5. (a) Any person who (1) files a fraudulent application or attests to any false statement with the intent to defraud the city or evade the payment of real property taxes or any part thereof: Or (2) in any manner intentionally deceives or attempts to deceive the city, shall be guilty of a violation and be subject to a criminal fine of not more than $2,000, in addition to being responsible for paying any outstanding taxes, interest and penalties. (b) During the tax year for which a tax credit was granted to an owner of property pursuant to this article, if the owner fails to notify the city within 30 days that the requirements of (ROH) Section 8-13.2 (a) are no longer met, in addition to the consequences provided in ROH Section 8-13.6, the owner shall be subject to a fine of $200.

Revocation of Credit (ROH) Section 8-13.6. During the tax year for which a tax credit is granted pursuant to this article if: (a) Title to the property is transferred to a new owner by gift, sale, devise, operation of law, or otherwise, except when title is transferred to a qualified surviving spouse, or (b) The requirements of Section 8-13.2 (a) are no longer met, then the credit shall be revoked and the owner shall owe property taxes in the amount of the tax credit. The additional taxes shall be billed and shall be deemed delinquent if not paid within 30 days after the date of mailing of the tax bill, or if the credit is revoked within the tax year for which the credit was granted, within 30 days after the date of mailing of the tax bill, or on or before the next installment date, if any, for such taxes, whichever is later.

Real Property Tax Credit For Homeowners

The City and County of Honolulu offers a real property tax credit to property owners who meet certain eligibility requirements. If you qualify, you are entitled to a tax credit equal to the amount of taxes owed for the 2022 – 2023 tax year that exceed 3% of the titleholders' combined total gross income.

You May Qualify but not Benefit

If the assessed tax for 2022 - 2023 is less than 3% of total gross income, no tax credit will be applicable. (See Example 2)

What are the Eligibility Requirements?

Any property owner(s) who applies and meets all the following eligibility requirements will be granted a real property tax credit:

1. You must have a home exemption in effect on the property at the time of application and during the tax year July 1, 2023 – June 30, 2024.
2. Any of the titleholders do not own any other property anywhere.
3. Combined total gross income of all titleholders for the 2021 calendar year does not exceed $60,000. Gross income includes all taxable and non-taxable income for the 2021 calendar year.
4. None of the titleholders have violated ROH Sec. 8-13.5, Penalties, by filing a fraudulent application or attesting to any false statements with the intent to defraud the city or evade the payment of real property taxes or in any manner intentionally deceives or attempts to deceive the city.

The tax credit will be the difference between your assessed real property tax and 3 percent of your total gross income.

Example 1
Mr. and Mrs. Joe Aloha applied for the Real Property Tax Credit on August 30, 2022. Their combined total gross income for 2021 was $25,000.
Total Gross Income for 2021 of all Titleholders	$ 25,000.00
Multiply total gross income by 3% (x .03)	$ 750.00
2022 – 2023 Tax amount for the year	$ 2,500.00
Less 3% of total gross income	$ 750.00
Tax Credit Amount to be applied for Tax Year 2023 – 2024.	$ 1,750.00
Mr. and Mrs. Aloha met the Real Property Tax Credit qualifications. Their current tax bill is greater than 3% of total gross income. They have a tax credit of $1,750 that will be applied to their 2023 - 2024 taxes.
Example 2
Mr. and Mrs. John Mahalo applied for the Real Property Tax Credit on August 15, 2022. Their combined total gross income for 2021 was $48,000.
Total Gross Income for 2021 of all Titleholders	$ 48,000.00
Multiply total gross income by 3% (x .03)	$ 1,440.00
2022 – 2023 Tax amount for the year	$ 1,300.00
Tax Credit Amount to be applied for Tax Year 2023 – 2024.	$ 0.00
Mr. and Mrs. Mahalo met the Real Property Tax Credit qualifications. Their current tax bill is less than 3% of total gross income. They qualify but do not benefit for a tax credit. The assessed tax is less than 3% of total gross income.

What is the Application Deadline? September 30, 2022.
